CONSOLIDATING THEIR GAINS
British Apparently Trying to Encircle Railroad Town
of Cambrai

9,000 PRISONERS ARE CAPTURED
Pétain Blocks Counter Attack
—Bloody Battles Taking Place in Italy

Amsterdam, Holland, Nov. 22.—A despatch quotes the Lokal An-zeiger as saying that the British used
from 150 to 200 tanks in their advance on Cambrai.

The British are carrying forward successfully their maneuver, which apparently has as its object the encirclement and capture of the important railroad junction of Cambrai
in northern France.

For three days the forces of General Byng have been strictly keeping to their task of smashing the German position in this region and now having driven the enemy from all of his fortified strongholds, are battling with him
in the open with the monstrous tanks
and the dashing cavalry everywhere,
opening the way for onslaughts by the infantry.

Within 2 3/4 Miles of Cambrai.

Already the British line describes an arc from the west to the southwest of Cambrai, with the lower point resting near Fontaine Notre Dame, 2 3/4 miles southwest of the much sought for town. Although the stroke of General Byng was delivered over a front of 3 1/2 miles, from the Scarpe river to St. Quentin, it was in the center and in the direction of Cambrai that it reached its greatest strength. Here
the wedge has been driven more than 1 1/2 miles and in the driving of it numerous towns and villages have fallen into the hands of the British,
many of them having been deserted by the surprised Germans who fled in apparent disorder, leaving equipment and stores behind them.

The operations of the cavalry are described as most brilliant, the horsemen making gallant charges into villages and even against machine gun positions, the entire gun crews of which were shot or sabred. At last reports they were engaged in surrounding the Bourlon wood, directly west of Cambrai, which dominates the entire region, including Cambrai itself and clearing out the enemy from the districts near Fontaine Notre Dame.

This village was captured in a brilliant attack Wednesday night, but the Germans in a counter attack Thursday regained it. Throughout the entire area taken by the British in the drive the work of consolidating the new positions is rapidly being carried onward.

More Than 9,000 Prisoners Taken.

In addition to heavy losses in men killed or wounded, more than 9,000
Germans had been made prisoner up to midday Thursday. The British casualties are declared to be considerably less than the number of prisoners taken by General Byng's men.

To the south of Juvencourt, in the Aisne region, where the French troops
took several positions from the Germans Wednesday, a counter attack
which cost the enemy serious losses,
has been effectually blocked and General Pétain's troops are still holding their vantage. South of St. Quentin the French again have raided enemy positions at several points, destroying them and taking prisoners.

Sanguinary battles in Venetia.

Sanguinary battles are in progress
in the Italian theatre between the Brenta and Piave rivers, where the armies of the Teutonic allies, greatly superior in numbers are striving to break through the hill country to the Venetian plains. Hand to hand encounters are of frequent occurrence
and in them the Italians seem to be holding their own and inflicting
serious losses on the invaders.

West of the upper reaches of the Piave, where the enemy is endeavoring to gain the valley leading into Venetia, the Berlin war office claims
the capture of Monte Pontone and Monte Spina, according to the former war office, except on the former positions, where a few advanced Italian lines were reached, the enemy everywhere has been repulsed. Along the Piave southward to the Adriatic
no important engagements have taken place.

STOP COLLEGE PAPER.

Rochester, Nov. 22.—Publication of the man student weekly at the University of Rochester was indefinitely
suspended today by Faculty Advisor Lester O. Wilder, instructor in English, because of its announcement in this issue that it would publish
news of the woman student activities.

Wilder explained his objection by saying that he opposed "the indiscriminate mixing of the sexes in the administration of college enterprises."

KERENSKY FORCE LAYS DOWN ARMS

Bolsheviks Reported to Have Won Complete Victory in City of Moscow

WORK FOR ARMISTICE

General Who Refuses to Proceed
to Get Pourparlers Deposed

Copenhagen, Denmark, Nov. 22.—
"The Bolshevik press agency officially reports from Petrograd that all of Premier Kerensky's troops have surrendered and that the Bolsheviks also have gained a complete victory at Moscow," says a dispatch to the Berlingske Tidende from Haparanda.

"The Ukrainian government has sent an army of 150,000 against General
Kaledines, Hetman of the Don Cossacks, and at the same time General Krasnoff, a member of Kerensky's staff, has gone to Kaledines' headquarters to open negotiations with him.

General Told to Secure Armistice.
Petrograd, Russia, via London, England, Nov. 22.—(British admiralty per Wireless Press).—Nikolai Lenin and Ensign N. Krylenko, commander in chief of the new people's commissaries of war, have issued a proclamation to the army and navy. The proclamation says:

"On Tuesday General Dukhonin was ordered to offer an armistice to all nations, allied and hostile.

"The message was received at headquarters Wednesday and General Dukhonin was instructed to keep the people's commissary continually informed as to the progress of the pour-parlers and only to sign an agreement
for an armistice after sanction by the commissary had been received. Having received no answer from Dukhonin
by Wednesday evening Dukhonin was asked the reason for his delay. He attempted many times to evade giving an explanation and a clear answer to orders. When a categorical order was sent instructing him to offer immediately and formally an armistice for the purpose of commencing peace pour-parlers he refused to obey.

On Refusal is Deposed.

"General Dukhonin has been informed that he has been deposed from his functions for disobeying his government and for conduct which is bringing unheard of suffering to all the working classes and to all the country, especially to the army. He has been ordered to continue his duties
until the new commander in chief or any other person authorized by him,
arrives to take command. Ensign Krylenko has been appointed the new commander in chief."

The proclamation urges the soldiers not to allow revolutionary generals to destroy the great work of peace. It says they must guard them well so that lynch law cannot be used against them
and so that the general cannot evade
justice.

The proclamation adds that the soldiers must observe the strongest revolutionary and military discipline.
Regiments on frontal positions must elect immediately plenipotentiaries to begin formally peace pourparlers and on the progress of those they must inform the commissary by all means.
Only the council of commissary has the right to sign a formal agreement for an armistice.

BRITISH ADVANCE WAS BIGGEST MADE IN DAY

PENETRATED SIX AND HALF MILES
ON TEN MILE FRONT

London, England, Nov. 22.—The British casualties in the advances toward Cambrai are reported to be very considerably less than the numbers
taken, it was announced today by
Maj. Gen. F. B. Morris, chief director of military operations at the war office.
The British, said Gen. Morris, had advanced to a depth of 6 1/2 miles at the farthest points on a front of ten miles, which was a record advance in 24 hours on the western front and was further than the progress made during three months' fighting at Ypres.

The victory at Cambrai, General
Morris continued, was the direct result of the fighting at Ypres, and,
therefore, the men who fought at Ypres deserve equal credit for the Cambrai success.

The Italian situation, the General added, was more satisfactory than a week ago, but it was premature to say that Venice was safe.

General Morris announced that the operations in Palestine near Jerusalem were continuing with complete success. The British troops were still six miles distant from Jerusalem, fighting in the hills of Judea, he said, and it would be unwise to make any anticipatory statement regarding the fall of the city.

CHAUNCEY WAS CUT IN HALF

Transport Ploughed Through Destroyer, Neither Carrying Lights.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—The American destroyer Chauncey, sunk Monday with the loss of 21 men, was cut in two by the transport Rose, the navy department was advised today
by Vice Admiral Sims. The after part of the destroyer sank immediately,
carrying down three officers, including the commander, Lieutenant Commander Walter E. Reno, and 13 enlisted men, who were believed to have been asleep in their quarters.

The Chauncey was undoubtedly conveying the Rose and both vessels
were running through the war zone without lights. The transport struck the port funnel and plowed through the frail vessel. The forward part of the wreck remained afloat an hour,
enabling the Rose to rescue the 70 officers and men in that section. They were taken to port by the transport.

The Rose was not identified by naval officials here today, there being no record of an American transport of that name, and Admiral Sims was asked to clear up that point.

SUFFRAGE PARTY FOR FEDERAL AMENDMENT

TO WORK FOR UPLIFT THROUGH LEGISLATIVE BODIES

New York, Nov. 22.—An amendment to the party's constitution was adopted today at the New York state Woman Suffrage association pledging
the state organization's effort to "secure to the women of the United States
their right to vote by appropriation in state and national legislation and to work for humanitarian legislation,
benefit moral conditions and especially protect the interests of women and children."

The amendment was offered by Mrs.

Thew Right of Buffalo.
A proposal by Miss Harriet May Mills of Syracuse that the name of the party be changed to the "New York State League of Women Citizens," and the organization be made an auxiliary
to the American National Suffrage
party was defeated.

More than $700,000 in money and
pledges was raised by the state party
to further the campaign for woman
suffrage during the last fiscal year.
It was shown in a report submitted by Mrs. Ogden Mills Reid, their treasurer.
Of this amount $567,566 already has been put into the treasury, she said.
The committee adopted a proposal
by Mrs. Right that the state board consider the sending abroad of a reconstruction unit for war relief work.
A resolution offered by Mrs. Mary Hyde Andrews of Syracuse, calling for the appointment of more women to state boards, also was adopted.

An invitation to join the party was extended to women who either were anti-suffragists or took no part in the campaign, but "who desired to serve their government effectively, who wished to know and to act so that the injustice and indifference under which many of the citizens of the state
live and labor, may be abolished."

Mrs. Henry White Cannon of this city, a newly elected director of the party, warned women voters not to be hasty in affiliating themselves with political parties.

Mrs. Norman D. R. Whitehouse was re-elected state chairman of the party
and all the officers nominated with her yesterday were elected.

COMMISSION EMBRYO OFFICERS

All Graduates of Officers' Training Camps to Be Classified.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—Graduates of the second officers' training camps, which close next Tuesday, will be commissioned in three classes for immediate active service under orders
made public today by the war department.

Men in list A are to fill existing vacancies in the National Army or to be attached to regular army organizations for duty. They will be given leave until December 15, when they will proceed to their stations.

Those on list B are recommended to be commissioned eventually as provisional second lieutenants in the regular army. At the close of the camps
they will be commissioned second lieutenants
and attached to regular regiments for duty to be commissioned in the regular army as vacancies occur.

List C includes all other men from the camps who are recommended for commissions. They will be commissioned in the Officers' Reserve corps
or National Army called to active duty and assigned as additional officers to various units until vacancies for them
occur.

TRANSPORT HAS EXCITING TRIP

Is in Collision First Night; Chased by Submarine the Next.

A French Port, Nov. 22.—The latest American transport to reach here
had an exciting trip through the submarine zone. In the first night in the zone two transports collided and one boat was slightly damaged, while the other had a small hole torn in her bow and a few projecting guns damaged. Temporary repairs were made and the ships proceeded.

The following night a submarine attacked the transport. The wake of a torpedo was seen off the bow of one of the vessels, but no exploding tower or

PLOT IN BRAZIL FOR U-BOAT BASE

REPORT SEEING U-BOAT

Fishermen and Passengers Tell
of Submarine Near Brazilian Port

Rio Janeiro, Brazil, Nov. 22.—A resident of Rio Janeiro, well known in Brazilian society, has been arrested for photographing sections of the coast, especially near the German colony. A search of his house revealed extensive plans for the operation
and subsistence of submarines in Brazilian waters. The authorities are of the opinion that it is the intention to operate German submarines along the Brazilian coast, if indeed they have not already arrived. As a result lights along the Brazilian coast have been shut off and vessels are operating without lights.

REPORT SEEING SUBMARINE.

Rio Grande del Sul, Brazil, via Montevideo, Nov. 22.—Fishermen and passengers on coastwise vessels report having seen a submarine near this port, and warships have been seeking it. The crew and a passenger reaching here recently reported having seen a Spanish sailing vessel off
the island of Agorodiro. The belief was held that this vessel was one of several conveying submarines.

$200,000 VERDICT IN MINE WORKERS' CASE

GIVEN FOR PROPERTY DAMAGE
IN 1914 STRIKE

Fort Smith, Ark., Nov. 22.—The jury
in the suit of the Bache-Dennan
syndicate against the United Mine workers and others this afternoon returned a verdict in the federal court awarding the plaintiff damages in the sum of $200,000. Under the Sherman act the plaintiffs are entitled to three times this amount of $600,000.

The plaintiffs sued for two and a quarter million dollars, alleging their property had been damaged to that amount by the acts of violence of the union miners at their Prairie Creek
mines in Sebastian county in July, 1914, following the attempt of the mine operators to work their mines
with non-union men. Several lives were sacrificed in the shooting that occurred, and two troops of United States cavalry were sent here to uphold the order of the United States marshal, who had been placed in charge of the property.

Indianapolis, Indiana, Nov. 22.—
The United Mine Workers of America
will immediately prepare to take to the higher courts the case decided at Fort Smith, Ark., in the federal court
there awarding $200,000 damages to the Bache-Dennan syndicate, it was said at the office of the Mine Workers, here today. The question of carrying the fight to the higher court probably will be laid before the American Federation of Labor in convention at Buffalo, by Frank Hayes and William Green, of the Mine Workers, who now
are in Buffalo, it was said.

NATIONAL SUFFRAGE AN EVIL 'TIS SAID

ANTIS SAY IT WOULD ENCOURAGE ALL PRO-GERMANS

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—The national association opposed to woman suffrage at a special meeting here today attended by representatives from 25 states adopted resolutions pointing out what it believed would be evil effects from the passage of the proposed federal suffrage amendment.

"The passage of the proposed amendment," the resolution said,
"would encourage all pro-German,
patriotic and socialist of both sexes in their demands for a national referendum on the war."

"Such a referendum could lead to only a division of public opinion and becomes an instrument for the encouragement of resistance to the selective draft and to army discipline."

The resolutions assert that the oath
of members of congress and government officials to defend the constitution of the United States against all foreign and domestic enemies "morally
and truly" applies to the proposed suffrage amendment.

The association also adopted a new platform declaring for "home and national defense against woman suffrage,
feminism and socialism, for man power
in government; for the enforcement of the constitutional right of each state
to settle the question of woman suffrage for itself, and for the ultimate union of woman and of all classes and creeds along non-partisan lines "so that the interest of womanhood, childhood
and civilization may be advanced free
from the strife and division of politics,
factions and parties."

COAL MEN HONOR PINK CARDS

Holders May Get From One Ton of Fuel Upward as to Needs.

New York, Nov. 22.—Coal dealers
throughout New York state, according to information obtained today at the office here of Albert H. Wiggins, state fuel administrator, are honoring pink coal cards which the consumers may obtain by convincing their county administrator of an actual need of fuel.
The cards call for one ton of coal or
for a greater amount if the applicant
is a factory owner. Strict precautions
have been taken to prevent hoarding it was said.

Assurances were given that there is no immediate danger of an actual stringency in coal in the state, although there still exists a shortage.
Coal is being received in increasing quantities daily, it was said.

Dr. Henry Moskowitz, city commissioner of markets, today asked Mayor Mitchell to approve a plan to establish municipal coal stations throughout the city to supply fuel to the poor. Dr.
Moskowitz said the plan had been approved by Mr. Wiggins and by wholesale coal dealers.

LABOR URGES ACTORS TO JOIN WHITE RATS

ACTION FOLLOWS OFFERING OF
RESOLUTION AT CONVENTION

Buffalo, Nov. 22.—The troubles that have beset actors in trying to unite their ranks claimed the attention of the American Federation of Labor for three hours this afternoon. A move made by the committee on adjustment to compose the situation by a complete reorganization
was voted down by the convention after the delegates had listened to pleas against such a course by representatives of the White Rats Actors' union.

The committee proposed that the executive council of the federation receive applications from the local unions of actors during the next six months and that a meeting then be called to form an organization that would embrace all branches of the profession. With the new union perfected, all previous charters were to be re-called.

The recall clause of the resolution
meant the death of the White Rats
an international union and two of their officers, Harry Montford and James W. Fitzpatrick, led the fight against its adoption.

They admitted that the membership of the White Rats had fallen off by the thousands, but said this was due to the repressive methods of the vaudeville managers that had made it impossible for an actor to be a White Rat and keep his position on a vaudeville circuit.

Fitzpatrick offered as a substitute
his report of an adjustment committee, a motion providing that the executive council of the federation
"urge actors to join the White Rats
Actors' union and that all organizers
of the American Federation of Labor
be instructed to offer the White Rats
every possible assistance." The substitute was adopted with only a few dissenting votes.

AGAINST EXEMPTING BASEBALL PLAYERS

BASEBALL MEN DIVIDED IN OPIN-ION ON SUBJECT

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 22.—Officers of the American league were deluged here
today with messages, some of them
approvals and many of them criticisms
over the announcement of B. Johnson, president of the league, that exemption
for 144 players in the league would be asked from the national government.

Baseball men were divided in their opinion of the advisability of the application. August Herman, chairman of the national commission and president of the Cincinnati league club favored the move if necessary to maintain baseball at its present standing. Those who had expressed themselves tonight
were:

For exemption.—August Herman,
James Duff, owner of the Cleveland club; A. E. Tearney, president of the Three I league; Henry H. Frazee, president of the Boston Red Sox;
Thomas Hickey, president of the American Association; Edward T. Barrow, president of the International League;
James Price, president of the Newark club, and A. C. Anson, former manager of the Chicago National League club.

Against.—John K. Tener, Charles A.
Comiskey, president of the world
champion Chicago club of the American league; Jacob Ruppert, president of the New York Americans; and Benjamin F. Minor, president of the Washington club.

MAN POWER WILL WIN WAR.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—Man power exerted on the field of France
will bring victory in this war, Provost Marshal General Crowder declared in a statement of the aims, accomplishment and future of the selective draft system addressed to members of the local boards and made public here tonight. After reviewing present conditions and necessities General Crowder predicted that the selective draft system would become a part of America's governmental system of war.
periscope was visible.

RAILROAD TIE-UP OVER FOR PRESENT AT LEAST

MRS. DESAULLES WENT FOR "JACK"

Inferred on Stand She Was Going to Take Advantage of Husband's Absence

TWO WITNESSES TESTIFY

DeSaules Valet Says Master Told Him to Tell Former Wife He Was Out

Mincola, Nov. 22.—Julius Hademek; the Austrian valet of John L. DeSaules, admitted on the witness stand in supreme court today that it was hope of regaining possession of her son that took Mrs. Bianca De-Saules to the home of her divorced husband the night she is charged with having murdered the former Valet athlete. Mrs. DeSaules sat with fixed eyes apparently oblivious to the proceedings while testimony was introduced at her trial to establish the identity of the man she shot. Then the valet was placed on the witness stand. Henry A. Uthart, one of the defendant's attorney's asked in cross-
examination:

"When you told Mrs. DeSaules that her husband was not at home what did she ask you over the telephone
that night?"

"She asked if Jack was there, replied Hademek.

"And by 'Jack' you inferred that she meant her son?" the witness was asked.

"Yes," he replied.

Valet Said Master Was at Club.

On previous questions Hademek had testified that on the night of the tragedy Mrs. DeSaules had called her former husband's home and inquired whether he was there. The valet said that at DeSaules' suggestion
he told her his master was at the Meadow Brook Country club and would be back in one hour despite the fact that DeSaules was standing at his side
at the time.

"What was the first question Mrs.
DeSaules asked when she entered her former husband's home that night?"
was another question put to Hademek
by the defence.

"She wanted to know the meaning of Jack's being kept away from her so long," the valet replied.

"And what was the last you heard her say to him before you heard the five shots?" asked Uthart.

"She said 'I want him,' was the reply.

"What did DeSaules say to that?"
was the next question.

DeSaules Refused to Give up Son.
"He said, 'No, No,' the witness replied.

"Then you heard the shots?"
"Yes," said the man on the stand.
James S. Bonner, the chauffeur who drove Mrs. DeSaules to the scene of the tragedy had preceded Hademek on the witness stand also as a state witness. He testified that the defendant
said as she got into the automobile,
"I'll give you a dollar if you get me
there in time." She had already told him that she wanted to go to De-Saules home "by the shortest route" he said.

"If you got her there in time," repeated Attorney Uthart, emphasizing the last two words.

"Yes, if I got her there in time," replied Bonner.

The inference was that she wanted
to reach DeSaules home before he returned from the club, although there was no direct testimony to that effect.

HOUSE MISSION NOW SAFELY IN FRANCE

COLONEL SAYS ENGLISH SYSTEM IS VASTLY EFFICIENT

Paris, France, November 22.—Colonel J. M. House and the members of the American mission which he heads, arrived in Paris from England tonight.

London, England, Nov. 22.—Prior to the departure of the American mission for Paris, Col. J. M. House authorized the following statement,
which he asked should not be published until the mission reached France.

"I have been impressed by the wonderful machinery you have created here in the heart of your empire to control your part of the war. You have given the world an example of the efficiency of democracy which will be of lasting value. The glorious victory of the Somme is the beginning of the realization of this efficiency and will hearten every lover of democracy
throughout the world.

"It is inspiring to feel that our two organizations will work frankly and closely together in the advancement of the war.

The departure of the mission was made as quietly as the arrival a few weeks ago. There was no ceremony.

Railroad Men Are Willing to

of Reason

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—Possibility of immediate suspension of railway transportation as a result of the four brotherhoods' proposed wage-demands was removed and progress toward amicable adjustment of any wage controversy during the war was made today at a conference between President Wilson, the four brotherhood heads, and members of the federal mediation board.

A definite issue in the wage negotiations, it was assured, could not be reached before the first of the year, as demands will not be presented until December 1. Developments will depend, first, upon the carriers' disposition of the new demands and, second,
in event of a deadlock upon further
negotiations agreed to at today's meet-

STATE GUARD CAN BE MOBILIZED RAPIDLY

ONEONTA COMPANY IN TENTH REGIMENT OF NEW BODY

Albany, Nov. 22. — By direction of Governor Whitman, Brigadier General Charles H. Sherill, state adjutant general, tonight announced the completion of the organization of the New York Guard to succeed the National Guard now in federal service. In the plan of organization, which is believed to be the most comprehensive that has ever been prepared for the New York state Guardmen, General Sherill has made provision to safeguard the state under any emergency that may arise out of the war.

"In time of war it is peculiarly necessary," the orders state, "that companies of the New York Guard which lie outside the greater city of New York shall be so grouped in regiments that their colonels shall always be in close touch with their battalion and company commanders, and can readily visit the headquarters of all the units attached to their command. Some regiments, notably the First and Third, formerly had their units widely scattered. To facilitate the mobilization and concentration of our battalions and regiments, careful attention must be given to the available railroad communications. This necessitated changes of formation which used to exist in the New York National Guard which existed outside the greater city of New York."

The total strength of the new organization is over a thousand in excess of the constitutional minimum of 10,000 men. Of this number more than 5,000 have been secured from home defense units.

Among the most important of a large number of appointments announced is that of Col. E. DeForest Kemp of Troy, who has been in command of the Second regiment, to be brigadier general of the Third brigade. Brig. Gen. George R. Pyer of New York will continue to command the First brigade, with headquarters at the Seventy-first armory, New York city, and Brig. Gen. Louis L. Babcock of Buffalo will continue in command of the Second brigade, with headquarters in Buffalo.

Under the readjustments made by the new plan, the Tenth infantry, N. Y. G., will consist of the units located at Oneonta, Albany, Hudson, Catskill, Cobleskill, Middleburg, Walton, Slidony, Mohawk, Ulster, New Hartford, Boonville and Madison, and to this regiment will be attached any new infantry units mustered into the New York Guard in the counties of Columbia, Greene, Albany, Schoharie, Delaware, Otsego, Herkimer, Oneida and Madison. The territory of the new Tenth infantry will begin immediately north of Ulster and Dutchess counties, run westward through Albany, along the New York Central railroad, out the Mohawk valley as far as Utica, and out through the Susquehanna valley along the Delaware and Hudson railroad to the western line of Delaware, Otsego, Madison and Oneida counties.

The Tenth infantry is one of the four units that will compose the Third brigade and will be under the command of Col. Charles J. Walsh with headquarters at the State armory, Albany.

POPULACE OF VENICE CALM WHILE WAITING

MINISTERS OF WAR AND MARINE INSPECT CITY'S DEFENSES

(By the Associated Press.)
Venice, Italy, Tuesday, Nov. 20. — The ministers of war and marine arrived here today and held a conference with the Mayor, Count Giannini, on the defenses of the city. They visited all parts of the city and carefully inspected the arsenal and the coast batteries.

The minister of marine went aboard the flag ship of the fleet and was received with honors amid the broadsides which were being directed against enemy positions at the mouth of the Piave. Both ministers expressed gratitude and surprise at the calmness of the population.

Airplane raids continue to be carried out but the dropping of bombs is infrequent. Sirens sound the alarm on the approach of each flotilla of raiders and the populace seeks cover. But the people gradually are becoming used to the visitations.

The roar of bombardment echoes through the city but no shells have as yet fallen within the city. Confidence is expressed that the stand Italians are making along the Piave river will save the city.

Floriens famous cafe on the Piazza San Marco was closed today because of the difficulties and dangers of the situation. Thus passes out of existence one of the historic establishments well known to American tourists.

The fortitude of the people is being shown in a movement that is on foot to send Christmas presents to the army defending the Piave line.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

The New York Markets.

New York, Nov. 22.—Trading in stocks today was again primarily influenced by the course of foreign events. From an irregular opening the market hardened generally but mainly in specialties, these advancing two to three points.

U. S. steel's minimum of 98 1/2 and maximum of 98 was typical of the movement in industrials as well as in rails.

Early activity centered around the speculative war shares which owe their occasional prominence to pulls or professional interest. Temporary strength in motors industrial alcohol and distillers securities occasioned hurried short coverings.

Declinations of the "extra" 3 1/2 per cent dividend on Lackawanna, steel and omission of the recent "extra" quarterly dividend on Brooklyn Union Gas became known after the close of the market.

September returns of a number of railroads disclose another large gap between operating and net revenues, the latter being less by almost $4,000,000 than in the corresponding month last year.

Bonds were irregular with Liberty 1s at 97.50 to 98.20 and the 3 1/2s at 98.00 to 99. United States bonds (old issues) were unchanged on call.

How the Hindenburg "Pill Box" System Is Organized

GERMAN "PILL BOX" SYSTEM.

The Germans in Flanders, abandoning intricate trench structure for purposes of defense as inadequate before the terrific British and French heavy gunfire, devised what has now come to be known as the "pill box," or concrete and steel shelter and outpost defenses, armed with machine guns.

A typical "pill box" is shown in the illustration, with its ground plan and elevation. This was situated near Bixchoote, north of Ypres, on that part of the Flanders line recently marking the French advance beyond Bixchoote.

This "pill box" had been partly destroyed by French shells, after which French infantry surrounded it and forced the surrender of its defenders. The "pill box" is practically invulnerable to infantry attack, but the British and French "tanks" are able to approach close to them and by directing machine gun fire through the embrasure, silence its fire. Infantry afterward clean up such as are left behind the advancing allied line.

The "pill box" contains two main chambers and mounts from three to five machine guns in a bastion beyond these chambers. Concrete and steel doors guard the rear exits. In front there are none. A stairway leads to the top, which may be used for observation purposes when the enemy is still at some distance.

Poison for Ground Squirrels.

The extermination of ground squirrels from about 200,000 acres of government land was one of the achievements of the United States biological survey during the last fiscal year. Of this area about 35,400 acres are on the Fort Totten Indian reservation in North Dakota, and the rest mainly on the Modoc, California and Sequoia national forests. In North Dakota, where the work has been carried on in co-operation with the state experiment station no less than five-eighths of a ton of strychnine has been used in the northern part of the state, seven counties having been systematically covered with poison.

Picnic Was Off.

Babe's uncle met her in the street one day and asked her whether she was going to a picnic party from her school.

"No," replied the eight-year-old niece, "I ain't going!"

"My dear," said the uncle, "you must not say 'I ain't going.' You must say 'I am not going.'"

And he proceeded to give her a little lesson in grammar.

"You are not going. He is not going. We are not going. They are not going. Now, can you say all that?"

"Oh, yes!" responded Babe heartily. "There ain't nobody going!"

SERIOUS CHEMICAL ACCIDENT

Robert Courtney, Employee in Kayser Factory at Sidney, Overcome by Noxious Gas and Body Charred by Acid—Lying in Serious Condition.

Sidney, Nov. 22.—Robert Courtney, a well-known young man of this village, aged about 29 years and only recently married, is in a serious condition by being overcome by acid fumes yesterday afternoon. He is employed in the dye department at the Kayser factory. He went into the chemical room with a pail of water to get some chemical used in dyeing goods, one of these being sulphuric acid. A few moments later he was discovered by a fellow employee in an unconscious condition on the floor of the room. He was quickly removed and Dr. P. S. Young summoned. The physician's examination showed that he had become unconscious by inhaling the noxious fumes and that a large portion of his body was severely burned by the mixture from the pail which had overturned. The burned portion of his body was charred as if with fire. He was removed to his home and this charred portion of his body was washed off. The intense pain he suffers from these burns, other bad results obtain from inhaling the poison, and today his condition is considered quite serious.

Domestic Science Meeting Held.

The annual domestic science meeting of the American University club was held Tuesday evening at the Hotel DeCumber dining rooms and was largely attended by members. The business session of the program was postponed and the evening given over to entertainment. A pantomime was given by Misses Peck, Root, Russell, Pitkin, Knoeller, Quackenbush and Smith, each being costumed in a different period and representing the various phases of housework, illustrating the fact that a woman can do housework and still be a clubwoman. Mrs. C. M. MacGibbon, a talented elocutionist, gave a reading entitled, "The Village Seamstress." This was so pleasingly given that she was compelled to respond to an encore. Mrs. W. F. Miller, president, talked interestingly on "The Women Abroad and the Work They Are Doing to Help in the War."

WHY Rats Constitute National Peril in America

To what extent the rat pest has become a national liability, entailing the loss of more than two hundred million dollars' worth of foodstuffs and other property in the United States every year, is told with a startling array of facts in a communication to the National Geographic society, derived from a country-wide survey by Edward W. Nelson, biologist. Following are some of the results of Mr. Nelson's survey:

"House rats destroy annually hundreds of millions of dollars' worth of foodstuffs and other property, and through the distribution of bubonic plague and other diseases cause the deaths of untold numbers of human beings.

"The common house-frequenting rats are of three species—the brown, the black and the roof rat. All are believed to be natives of Asia, whence they have spread to most parts of the world. In their relations to man their habits are so familiar that they may be included in one account. The larger size, abundance, more general distribution and aggressive predominance of the brown rat, also known as the Norway and which has led to its being generally known as 'the house rat.'

"The history of the brown rat is an extraordinary one, one unequalled by that of any other mammal. It was unknown in Europe until 1737, when vast hordes of them swam the Volga river. A year or two later it arrived in England on ships from the Orient. Since that time it has steadily extended its distribution by means of ships and other transportation agencies, and by migrations overland, until it shares with mankind nearly all parts of the earth from Greenland to Patagonia and around the globe.

"It is a sturdy, fierce and cunning animal, with extraordinary fecundity. These characteristics have enabled it quickly to overrun and occupy new territory despite the never-ceasing warfare waged against it by man and the competition of other mammals.

"The smaller black rat and roof rat formerly existed in most parts of the Old World. They preceded the brown rat also in America, but when the latter arrived were promptly reduced by it to a secondary position or exterminated. Black rats still exist in some parts of the United States, and roof rats are common with the brown rat in the milder climate of the Southern states.

With an abundant food supply brown rats increase with almost incredible rapidity. They have from three to twelve litters a year, each containing from six to more than twenty young, the average being about ten. The young begin to breed when less than three months of age.

After careful investigation the United States public health service estimates that the number of rats living under normal conditions in our cities equals the human population, but that in country districts they are relatively three to four times as numerous.

DETERMINING AGE OF MAN

How Scientist Has Fixed Glacial Period in Sweden.

Prof. Gerald de Geer, a Scandinavian man of science, has for many years been studying the sands deposited by the glaciers in the Yoldia sea in Sweden. These lie in layers of alternately fine and coarse sand. It seems certain that the fine sand is deposited by the slow flow of water and that the coarse layers are due to the summer flow when the streams are swollen by the thawing of the glaciers.

By counting these layers and studying their thickness, Professor de Geer has come to the conclusion that southern Sweden was first clear of glacial ice about 2,000 years ago.

This calculation coincides roughly with that derived from his study of the Niagara gorge by G. W. Wright and with that of Sollas, who holds that the last glacial epoch ended not more than 7,000 years ago.

Sir Bertram Windle says that "with such difference of opinion existing among the doctors" plain men should remember that any statements about ancient specimens of man being "hundreds of thousands of years old," perhaps even millions, are based on pure imagination and have no real foundation of any kind.

Why Man Should Be Well Dressed.

Ill-fitting clothes detract ten per cent from a man's efficiency, according to Dr. George Van Ness Dearborn, professor of psychology at Harvard, who addressed a national gathering of clothing manufacturers and store owners. "One can hardly estimate the benefits of being well-dressed and properly fitted," Doctor Dearborn said. "The well-dressed man spells success and inspires confidence. First impressions are most important, and many a man has got a place largely on account of the cut of his clothes. It goes without saying that the rich man should buy the best and attire himself with taste, but it even pays the poorer man to do the same, for an air of prosperity is contagious. Finally, well-fitting clothes add to one's self-respect, inculcate personal cleanliness and aid the man in business."

The Tad's Problem.

The tad on the Hardscrabble farm sat in the fence corner behind the sumac bushes and frowned darkly. His was a weighty problem. When he grew up he intended to have a pair of brass knuckles. He had never seen any brass knuckles, but he knew that they were weapons used by pirates, circus men, and other ornery folks, and he believed they would be just as effective on the fists of a hero or an avenger. The thing that he could not decide was which he would do first when he arrived at manhood's estate and acquired the knucks, pound the stuffing out of the schoolmaster or rescue the little girl on the next farm from a Prussian crown prince.—Kansas City Star.

SICK WOMAN HAD CRYING SPELLS

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Enhaut, Pa.—"I was all run down and weak inwardly. I had female troubles and nervous feelings and my head bothered me. I would often have crying spells and feel as if I was not safe. If I heard anyone coming I would run and lock the door so they would not see me. I tried several doctors and they did not help me so I said to my mother 'I guess I will have to die as there is no help for me.' She got me one of your little books and my husband said I should try one bottle. I stopped the doctor's medicine and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It soon made a change in me and now I am strong and do all my work."—MRS. AUGUSTUS BAUGHMAN, Box 86, Enhaut, Pa.

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out and drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? If you would like free confidential advice address Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

The Court Paid.

In his early years Lord Morris (afterward lord chief justice of Ireland) was recorder of Galway. On one occasion the last case on the list, a dispute over a few shillings—was argued before him at great length and with much warmth. Lord Morris was anxious to get back to Dublin, where the courts were in full swing and he held important briefs. Within a few minutes the Dublin train was timed to start. The recorder looked at his watch, but the wrangle did not seem to be approaching an end.

At last he said to the opposing solicitors: "See here, gentlemen, I must catch a train. Here is the sum in dispute;" and throwing down the silver, he vanished from the court.—Green Bug.

PIMPLES

Why so many young men and especially otherwise beautiful women allow their faces to be disfigured, with unsightly pimples, is beyond me, says Peterson. Every druggist in America who cares to speak freely will tell you that one 25c box of Peterson's Ointment is guaranteed to banish every pimple or other skin eruption, or money back—and it won't take more than 10 days to do it.

The mighty healing power of Peterson's Ointment for skin diseases, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Sore Nipples, Old Sores, Ulcers, Yaws, Glands, Ulcers, Itching, and Itching Piles, is almost beyond belief and the small price puts it within the reach of all. Dr. W. Kurz of Erie, Pa., writes: "I had suffered with eczema of the left ear and scalp for over 25 years, but a small box of Peterson's Ointment has entirely eradicated it." All druggists are authorized to guarantee it. After December 1, Peterson's Ointment $2.00.

CONCERNING SIX CENT FARE.

For some time the matter of a five or six cent fare for suburban service on trolley lines in the various cities of the state has been under consideration by the Public Service commission at Albany. Many but not all of the companies in New York cities made application for the twenty per cent increase in short trip charges and it has been believed that the hearing and decision in one instance would be sufficient in all. This, however, has not been the opinion of the commission, which holds that there are so many different elements in the cases that probably each of them must be considered separately. In one case, however, that of the Huntington railroad on Long Island, a decision was handed down on Tuesday which had in it certain conclusions which will have bearing on all of the decisions later to be rendered. For this reason it will be of interest in every municipality where trolley lines are operated.

One of the questions brought up in this case was whether the commission had a right to authorize a six-cent fare in cases where the railroad law limits the rate for a continuous ride to five cents. The other is whether the acceptance by a street railroad corporation of a franchise containing a five-cent fare condition precludes the commission from increasing the rate to six cents in that city or municipality.

The commission has decided that subdivision 1 of section 49 of the public service commissions law was intended by the legislature to vest power in the commission, and has made it the duty of the commission, where it finds upon a sufficient showing that in fact the maximum rates or fares chargeable either under section 181 of the railroad law or under the local franchise are insufficient to yield reasonable compensation for the service rendered, are for that reason unjust and unreasonable, to authorize the increase of such fares.

The principal opinion is by Commissioner Carr, who cites all of the decisions and all of the statutes of the State of New York having any bearing, historical or otherwise, upon the question. There are concurring opinions by each of the other commissioners.

After authorizing the advance of the Huntington company's fares from five to six cents the commission's order concludes: "This determination and order may be reopened at any time if and when it may appear to the commission that the controlling reasons for allowing an increase of fares in excess of those which otherwise would legally obtain no longer exist."

While the order affects only the Huntington road, it is to be inferred that a similar ruling will be given in every instance in which it appears that the present fare is inadequate; and also that these decisions will be in a sense temporary and may be reopened either way, by the company if it finds six cents too little, by the city when the reasons for increase are reasons no longer.

ADDRESSES PATRIOTIC RALLY.

Stamford Does Honor to Men Called to Colors with Judge Kellogg Speaking.

Stamford, Nov. 22.—Under the auspices of the Men's Patriotic league a largely attended and enthusiastically held at the Opera House last evening to do honor to the men about to leave to join the colors and those who are now at camps and in the field. The gathering was presided over by A. J. McNaught Jr., and the music for the event was furnished by the Stamford band. In addition to the numbers furnished by the band there were numerous patriotic songs in which the large audience joined. The address of the evening was given by Hon. Abraham L. Kellogg, of Oneonta, recently chosen as supreme court justice for this district. Judge Kellogg spoke for about 40 minutes, paying a glowing tribute to the young men who are giving their all in the service of their country and eulogizing the friends at home also who are standing so valiantly behind the boys at the front with money and food and all supplies necessary to hasten the end of the war. His remarks were frequently punctuated with cheers and well voiced the appreciation of the community and adjoining country for the men. There was a large gathering of young men assembled at the front composed of those who leave the county soon for the training camps and others expecting soon to be called.

Plan Hike for Saturday.

At the usual weekly meeting of the Boy Scouts, Troop 2, held at the armory on Tuesday evening, the organization was started for the collection of waste material under the auspices of the Red Cross, which is to commence Nov. 30. Sacks for the collection of waste were sent to the schools of the city.

Nine new car drivers were voted upon and six were received into the troop. Plans for a hike to Goodyear lake on Saturday were made. The boys have been invited to use Mr. Hone's camp for the day. Those planning to take the hike should hand their names only today to Mr. McDonough, together with 15 cents, the hike assessment.

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS

Real Americans.

Real Americans ought to visit social ostracism upon those living here that are upholding our enemy.—[Rochester Union.]

Make a Clean Sweep.

A strange feature of the incendiary fires about the country is that despite all the fire fighting machinery they are almost never promptly suppressed but generally make a clean sweep.—[Rochester Post Express.]

Worrying About Death Rate.

Germans are worried over the falling birth rate. But the thing that's giving the Kaiser that furrowed brow is the rising death rate.—[Binghamton Press.]

Not Willing to Accept.

The country has not yet reached the stage at which it will accept a trifling restriction of its pleasure without somebody objecting.—[Buffalo Enquirer.]

They Wonder.

Some of the folks are wondering why they don't furnish that talked of Chinese labor before disaster overtakes the farming industry.—[Rochester Herald.]

German Saintliness.

A complaining member of the Reichstag was assured that of the girls of Alsace-Lorraine taken to work at the front "only 8 1/2 per cent were less than 17 years old," and that "scarcely one-half of them had been subjected by force to the work." If this doesn't prove the saintliness of the Germans, we cannot conceive what will.—[New York Evening Post.]

One of Our Weaknesses.

From all accounts, the treatment and food given the German prisoners in the internment camp at Asheville, N. C., rather overdoes the thing. The humane care of prisoners should always be provided, but when we go so far as to furnish them with fare that could not be secured in a first-class hotel for several dollars a day, we are showing off a peculiar weakness of the American people.

A Crushing Defeat.

It was a crushing defeat which overtook the pacifist-Socialist element in the convention of the American Federation of Labor at Buffalo—buried under a shouting and cheering vote of many thousands to a few hundreds. There have been few demonstrations more impressive of American solidarity in the war than this which followed Samuel Gompers' blazing and uncompromising address on the mighty issues involved in affecting democracy and humanity in the world.—[New York World.]

Sound Sense.

Irish-Americans in Lowell, Mass., say they would a hundredfold rather have Ireland remain under British rule than be handed over to the fate of Poland and Belgium. That is pretty sound sense. It is well worth emphasizing.—[Brooklyn Eagle.]

Obliterating Class Distinctions.

It may be well that our participation in the world war is to help the American people understand more clearly that men are to be judged by what they are and do, and not by their skins or descent. We read how class distinctions in the British armies have been obliterated in wonderful way as men of rank and of the common people have shed their blood in the cause that holds all. In the trenches men face realities and the democratic spirit grows.—[Springfield Republican.]

Will Not Look Back.

German propagandists had better drop their "peace by understanding" shibboleth. It will be peace with victory. We have put our hand to the plow and will not look back.—[New York Telegram.]

Get the Murderers.

Teutonic propaganda in this country has at last stooped to crude murder. Three Austrians, two men and a woman, were slaughtered with an axe in Virginia, Minn., because they subscribed for Liberty Loan bonds.

The murderers should be trailed with all the energy and skill of which the United States secret service is capable. State and municipal authorities should lend their aid to find the assassins of these loyal immigrants. If the murderers are not undone, it can be expected in future in the matter of co-operation from foreign-born citizens of the Northwest.—[Buffalo Commercial.]

A Disconcerting Blow.

Money advanced by the United States to the now non-existent Provisional Russian government is for the most part still here in the form of supplies prepared or preparing for shipment, and it will remain here for a while. This is the word from Washington and it is relieving. To be deprived of this promising meal ticket just as General Kaledine and his Cossacks are preparing to cut off bread and coal from the Bolsheviks is likely to prove a sad blow to the fatening hopes of that mixture of idleness and anarchy and treachery in "government."—[New York World.]

High School Report Cards.

The quarterly report cards of the High school pupils will be distributed today. Parents are urged to examine carefully these reports, as it is the most convenient and ready means for informing them of the progress made by their children in school. I would call the attention of parents to the number of absences and tardiness noted on the report. Low grade of work and irregular attendance are often co-existent and not infrequently do we find irregular attendance the essential cause of the pupil's retardation. After examining the report card, parents are requested to sign their name on the back and return to the High school. Heavy co-operation on the part of the parent is most earnestly solicited in order to maintain a high standard of scholarship. A. O. Bridgman, Pr.

HOW PARIS LOOKS FROM DIRIGIBLE GUARDING THE CITY

AERIAL PATROL, PARIS.

Paris, seen from a height of 1,000 feet. Photograph taken from a dirigible, one of the units of the air fleet which guards the city. In the immediate foreground is the Quai d'Orsay. Across the bridge the Pont des Invalides stands the Grand Palais des Beaux Arts, surrounded by the Champs Elysees. The airship in the picture hovers directly above the Madeleine. In the distance, rising above the many buildings, is the Basilique de Saint-Coeur, crowning the heights of Montmartre.

CURRENT COMMENT

In capturing Gaza the British have now the proud right to allude to themselves as Us and Samson.—[Hudson Republican.]

Out in Minnesota three Austrians were murdered by Teutonic sympathizers because they purchased Liberty bonds and helped the Red Cross. The day has come to organize vigilantes in every town and city to meet this kind of schrecklichkeit.—[Auburn Citizen.]

General Holl is the name of an officer in the German army, where that sort of thing is raised.—[Cleveland Plain Dealer.]

Why should the Kaiser bother his brain about a peace parley? He won't figure in it if it's held.—[Macon Telegraph.]

Max Eastman, editor of the Masses, and six of his associates, including John Reed, the socialist war correspondent, have been indicted under the espionage law. They made their bed.—[Buffalo Express.]

This new war thrift plan for helping finance the country's requirements in the fight for liberty has been worked out by the treasury department with the idea of interesting the greatest possible number of individuals in the task in hand. It adapts for us in America a plan that has worked successfully abroad. It will bring home to every American, as even the small denomination Liberty bonds could not, the feeling of personal responsibility toward the war that is highly desirable in a democracy at war.—[Cleveland Plain Dealer.]

Relief for the railroads is highly important in relation to our military preparations and the financial stability of the country, but it is also important in relation to post-war conditions. Inadequate revenues make it difficult to purchase equipment for our present transportation needs and cause serious depreciation in railroad securities. It is not likely that the railroads can carry on, even during the period of the war, if it should be prolonged and make shift to meet our military needs, without an increase in rates. But it is certain that if they are compelled to do so they will be in bad shape to handle the nation's business after the war.—[Chicago Tribune.]

The German submarine campaign has broken down in its most ambitious undertakings. The British operations on the western front reveal a military establishment of marvellous effectiveness. The Italians are coming back and French courage has never wakened. It is time that pessimism again give way to confidence. Even Russia may escape from the German and anarchistic conspiracies in which it is enmeshed and contribute something toward the ultimate victory. It is worth while to remember that whatever obstacles may confront the allies now or hereafter, Germany's situation is worse. There is no virtue in gloom.—[New York World.]

An aviator claiming to be a Finn was arrested on board a ship which was to sail within a few hours for Bergen, Norway. The man was a "walking arsenal." He had in his possession many drawings and specifications. In his bag were 500 rounds of cartridges, and in his overcoat pocket was a Savage automatic pistol. In his grip were also about 50 parts of airplane mechanism, and in the hold of the ship was a motor which had been smuggled aboard without examination. That is reason enough why alien enemies should be barred from the docks of this country.—[Utica Press.]

The way of Judge Mulqueen in dealing with an offender against the law who had boasted that he would go to prison before he would serve in the army comes as a relief from the often told tale of magisterial "sentencing" of lawbreakers to the army or the

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Formally Thanks Henry E. Huntington for Magnificent Gift to City.

At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, held on Wednesday, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, Information has reached us of the magnificent act on the part of Mr. H. E. Huntington of New York city, who has formally given to the city of Oneonta the Huntington residence and lands adjacent to it to be used as a free public library and park after the building and lands have been perfected in harmony with plans and landscape designs now under development; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Board of Directors of the Oneonta Chamber of Commerce, assembled on this 21st day of November, 1917, convey to Mr. Huntington its deep appreciation of his generous gift which means so much for the future growth of our fair city; and for the comfort and pleasure of our inhabitants and the rising generation in particular; and be it further

Resolved, That the president and secretary be requested to transmit to Mr. Huntington at his New York address a copy of these resolutions.

FAMINE KILLING 1,000 A DAY.

Let Us Do Our Bit for Starving Syria—Remember Lecture Tonight.

A recent press dispatch authoritatively states that from a population of 350,000 in the Lebanon mountains, famine is taking a terrible toll, no less than 1,000 persons dying daily. It is a terrible condition, and one which it is our duty to help so far as possible to alleviate.

Rev. Abraham M. Ribbany is helping his starving countrymen. Let us do our bit by hearing him lecture this evening at 8 o'clock at the High school building.

Those who have enjoyed "A Far Journey," and "The Syrian Child,"—and those who have not read them—will enjoy the lecture at the High school this evening. But do not fail to be present, whether you have read the books or not. It is conceded to be a wonderful address by a wonderful man.

HEARING AT ALBANY TODAY

Representatives of City Government and Lighting Company to Confer With Commissioner Irvine Relative to Gas and Electric Prices in City.

This morning, at 10 o'clock, before Commissioner Irvine of the Public Service commission, a conference will be held between the representatives of the city government and of the Oneonta Light & Power company relative to the prices to be charged for gas and electricity in the city during the period of abnormal costs caused by the war. This is the preliminary hearing and while Commissioner Irvine has urged that the city and company effect a compromise if possible, efforts have been made to that end without avail. What attitude he will take is a matter of conjecture, although it is hoped that some arrangement can be made for a submission of the case upon the facts in the case without the expense and delay incident to a prolonged hearing with a great mass of evidence offered on both sides.

At the hearing the city will be represented by Mayor Ceperley, Attorney Becker and Alderman Lauren, chairman of the finance committee of the council and Alderman Bolton, chairman of the law committee. It is expected that Mr. Smith of New York and Attorney J. F. Thompson of this city will appear for the company with J. I. Mange of New York city representing the officers and Manager Sellers present from this city as an authority on local conditions with the company.

While no definite statement is obtainable it is understood that the company is willing to waive the service charge of 50 cents a month to gas consumers provided that an increase to $1.65 per thousand in gas and from 10 cents to 12 cents a kilowatt in electricity is substituted for that charge. To this proposal objection is made in behalf of the city that the electric light prices have not been made a subject for the hearing. The company contends that the service for gas was to be followed with an increase in the price of electricity and that the whole subject should be disposed of at once.

The hearing will be dependent upon the position of Commissioner Irvine and the whole subject may be opened, which will include physical valuation of both the gas and electrical plants in the city, the testimony of experts as to the cost of producing both commodities under the conditions prevailing here. This will be costly both for the city and the company and while no basis for a compromise has been found it is not unlikely that Mr. Irvine will still urge an adjustment before going on with the hearing.

WRECK IN CHERRY VALLEY SAG.

Ten Cars of Coal Heaped Up Last Evening West of Cobleskill.

At about 5:30 o'clock last evening Delaware and Hudson freight train extra 892, J. C. Cole conductor and William Hammond engineer, both of Whitehall, was the victim of an accident in what is known as the Cherry Valley sag, between Cobleskill and Richmondville. Ten heavily laden coal cars were derailed, it is believed as the result of a broken wheel. Coal and wreckage were piled up upon both tracks and all traffic, north and southbound, was tied up.

Fortunately train 308, the Binghamton local, had passed the sag about 20 minutes before the accident took place. This train ran to Oneonta, where it was held until 6:55, when it ran on the time of No. 308 to Binghamton. Trains 309 and 308 were blocked by the wreck, but transferred passengers and mail and returned, the former to Oneonta and the latter to Albany. The train for this city reached Oneonta about two and a half hours late. No one was injured in the accident so far as could be learned.

Investigating Howe Death.

District attorney Orange L. Van Horne of Cooperstown was in the city yesterday investigating the circumstances surrounding the death of the late Jesse W. Howe, whose death followed in a few days, accidental injuries sustained when he was knocked down by a motor car on Main street. There has been manifested some demand that the accident be investigated. No intelligence as to his decision in the matter could be ascertained last night.

NAMED AS ADVISORY BOARD.

To Assist the Exemption Boards of County 1. New Draft.

Governor Charles S. Whitman has appointed Hon. A. L. Kellogg of Oneonta, Hon. Charles C. Fliesch of Unadilla and Hon. N. P. Willis of Cooperstown as an advisory board to cooperate with the exemption boards of the county of Otsego in the large volume of additional work incident to the next draft. The new draft regulations are much more extensive and provide for the enumeration of all men of service age and it is believed will require additional help in the work of properly preparing and completing the papers.

The committee named will act in advisory capacity to the exemption board, and County Judge Kellogg is authorized to name additional attorneys in other towns and villages to act with the board as required to perform the duties.

A vast amount of clerical work is thus entailed, and in order to give the draft authorities accurate and necessary information required, the assistance of attorneys has been asked by the federal government. It is estimated that approximately 750,000 copies of the list of questions will have to be filled out by registered men of New York state. With this information, the draft officials will be in a better position to pass upon the qualifications of the men and to apply their rulings with greater uniformity than has heretofore been possible.

The patriotic service of the lawyers comprising these county advisory boards is expected to lighten materially the labors of the local exemption boards whose members have found their duties most pressing, owing to the mass of detail incident to the calling, examination and disposition of the drafted men.

HER FIRST APPEARANCE.

An Interesting Story Excellently Rendered by Normal Students.

Yesterday afternoon at the Normal, that interesting story, "Her First Appearance," by Richard Harding Davis, was excellently rendered by the students. When the story first appeared some 30 years ago it made a sensation, nor has it lost any of its charm during the lapse of years. VanBibber, a name on everybody's lips a generation ago, never appeared to better advantage than in this story of tender sentiment and dramatic situations. If it reads well, it recites better; no one could hear it from the lips of the speakers yesterday without feeling thrills of sympathy and compassion for the little girl who made her first and last appearance on the stage. The speakers were: Miss Cronkrite, Miss Gardner, Miss Jackson, Miss Spears, Miss Stanford and Miss Trauger. We desire to commend most heartily each and all for a very faithful and impressive rendering of this famous story. We do not well see how the lines could be improved in any particular.

The music, also, was delightful. Miss Brady rendered excellently Schmitt's "A La Bien Almee," the semi-chorus of the glee club sang Stair's "Dutch Lullaby" with splendid rhythm and feeling; the violin duo was most charming indeed; and Mendelssohn's "Sleep Gentle Babe" was beautifully interpreted by the school chorus.

We enjoyed the exercises immensely, and we thank the performers for a happy hour in these troublous days.

PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA.

Will Meet for Organization Next Sunday Afternoon at Oneonta Theatre.

The Oneonta Philharmonic orchestra, of which the entertainments for the past two years have been so pronounced a success in this city, will meet Sunday afternoon for the purpose of organization. Through the courtesy of Manager Smith, the meeting will be held at the Oneonta theatre, the strings meeting at 3:30, and the other members at 4 o'clock. It is requested that all who desire to become members be present, and that so far as possible they bring their own music racks. After the meeting for organization the meetings will be held as heretofore in Municipal hall.

The orchestra will be under the direction of Robert E. Gardner—a fact which insures the quality of the instruction. It is hoped that Oneonta this winter will have the largest and best orchestra in its history, and to bring this about all interested in the work are urgently invited to attend.

POPULAR PRICED DRAMAS.

Cutter Stock Company Coming to Oneonta Theatre All Next Week.

A rare treat is in store for the lovers of popular priced amusement in the announcement of the engagement of the Cutter Stock company at the Oneonta theatre for a week's stay, beginning next Monday evening, when the entire strength of this excellent organization will appear in the late comedy drama success "The World and a Woman," which is said to be entirely different from anything heretofore offered by shows of this kind.

Many high class acts are carried, with the company, the feature of which is the spectacular posing and singing novelty "Visions La Flame," with Miss Luola Blassell, who has appeared in 42 of the leading theatres of New York city, in which she has played 22 return dates, including the Winter Garden. This act alone is well worth the price of admission, and must be seen to be appreciated.

During the Cutter Stock company engagement 10, 20 and 30 cent prices will prevail.

The Spirit of Christmas '17

Surely there is unusual need this year for a day of sunshine. Individual and nation require Christmas cheer. It is fitting that we scatter sunshine as never before; that we give bountifully; that the hope, the promise, the optimism of Christmas day be renewed and brightened, and this Yuletide be a season of proud and staunch patriotism.

The pre-eminence of Brigham's as a gift store is pronounced. Each article in the store has the characteristics of an ideal gift—ornamental, useful, enduring and desired. The reliability of our stocks, even in the smaller, inexpensive things, is well known. One regards it as an extra compliment to have the present come from Brigham's.

In Memory of Lewis and Fred Bolles.

In a near and silent graveyard
Where the trees their branches wave,
Lie two dear and loving brothers
In their cold and silent graves.
Never did a heart more tender
Throb within a human breast
Than the ones now gone forever
Gone into eternal rest.
They bade no one their last farewell.
They waved their hands to none.
Their spirits flew before we knew
That they from us had gone.

MILLIGAN THE GOLFER KILLED

Former Golf Instructor at Oneonta Country Club Loses Life on Battle Front in France.

Yesterday's New York Herald has the following in reference to James Milligan, the former golf instructor at the Oneonta Country club, under the caption "Oneonta Golfer Reported Killed."

Every once in a while the golfers have the war brought home to them by the news of the death of one of their number in France, Belgium or some other of the far flung battle lines. Today the professionals, and a great many amateurs as well, are feeling blue, for, according to a report that has reached this country, James Milligan, one of their number, has paid the big price.

Milligan came to this country from North Berwick, Scotland, seven or eight years ago. For a season or two he was instructor at the Wyoming Valley Country club of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and later was at Oneonta, N. Y. Having lost three brothers in the war, Milligan last winter decided that he would take a trip home to Scotland to see his sorrowing mother. Jim was all that she had left in this world. Before leaving he declared that for the sake of his mother he would try to resist the temptation to go over to France to avenge the death of his brothers. It was his intention, he said, to return to his duties at Oneonta in the spring of 1917. However, not many weeks had elapsed when word came back that Milligan had donned the khaki and was training for service in the trenches as a private in the Royal Scots.

No one appears to have any details of how Jim came by his end. However, the story persists that he has fallen and it is assumed that he went down in one of the smashes that General Haig has been delivering all summer and autumn against the Hun lines.

Although not in the championship flight, Milligan nevertheless was a capable golfer. Sturdily built, he had the reputation of being a long driver, while he could also make the ball travel beyond the average distance with the irons. He tried for the open championship of the United States Golf association for the first time in 1912, when the event was held at Buffalo, but did not complete the 72 holes of play. In 1913, when Francis Outmet won the title after a play-off with Harry Vardon and Edward Ray at Brookline, Mass., Milligan was one of the entries in a record field. He scored 172 in the 36 holes of qualifying play, but again was numbered among the withdrawals.

As an instructor and clubmaker Milligan left little to be desired, according to his brother professionals. At Wyoming Valley he was a general favorite.

ABANDON SEARCH FOR BODY.

Now Believed That Body of Frank Hart Cannot Be Located Till Spring.

A special from Norwich relative to Frank Hart, well known in this city, and a companion who lost their lives in the Adirondacks while on a hunting trip, says:

The search has been abandoned for Frank Hart and Henry Stone, who have been lost on a hunting trip to the North Woods. The men started on the return trip to Norwich on the third day of November and have not been heard of since. They started for the landing at a railroad station in a steel bottomed row boat, a boat which under ordinary usage would not be safe because of its construction, which added to the fact that the steel was rusted and that it is highly probable that the air chambers gave way and the boat collapsed, as it is known when they had the boat loaded that the water came to within three inches of the top of the edge of the boat. The water was rough and the indications are that these men lie in the bottom of Mud Lake.

To substantiate this theory there is the remains of the boat which was found, the caps of the two men, a part of the venison which they carried and a paddle to the boat. The water of the lake was drawn off as far as possible and the water dragged and grappling hooks used, however, with no success in finding the missing men. It is thought that in the spring the bodies will come to the surface.

He and his bride will reside for the present at 36 River street.

Thousands of People in Oneonta

Will be eating a good Thanksgiving Dinner next Thursday in as comfortable surroundings as they ever had in their lives—after they have filled up on all the good things to their heart's content, they will probably retire to some nice easy chair "to rest"—"smoke a good cigar" and talk with the rest of the folks about the AWFUL WAR so many of our boys are going into.

Now, don't you think that you will enjoy your dinner far better, also your cigars, if you can say to yourself, "I'm thankful I've done a little something more this week which will add to the comfort of our soldier boys, who may be in camp—on the sea—or over in France?"

"The Recreation Fund" and "The Y. M. C. A. Fund" will be glad to receive your contribution NOW. Think It Over.

Rengo Belt

Reducing Corsets

Most Economical

It is the height of economy to wear Rengo Belt corsets—they last.

Most reducing corsets have their style lines only when they are new. Rengo Belt corsets retain their lines until they are worn out, and greatest comfort comes after the first wear. This is the reason why Rengo Belt corsets have gathered new admirers each year until they have become famous.

Economical Satisfying Most Comfortable

No woman asks more—some have found all this—and more—mostly they are women who wear Rengo Belt corsets.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

USE CHOPSTICKS IN JAPAN

Old Custom Prevails Among Poorer Classes, While the Rich Have European Knives and Forks.

The use of chopsticks is general in Japan; except among the richer classes, who have adopted European knives and forks, and, to some extent, the European custom, London Titi-Bites says. Small bowls of china or lacquerwood are the usual table equipment. After the various solid portions of the food have been lifted to the mouth with chopsticks, the liquor remaining is sipped from the bowl. In the case of rice, which would be tedious to pick up grain by grain, the bowl is often raised to the mouth and the rice shoveled or pushed in with the chopsticks. It is also customary to pour a little tea into the rice bowl after it has been nearly emptied, and in this way the few remaining grains of rice are washed down as the tea is drunk.

At public places the chopsticks at each meal must be new; this is indicated by the fact that the chopsticks are made from one piece of wood and are left joined together, as were matches at one time. These new chopsticks are incased in a thin paper envelope, sealed at the end, and bearing Japanese characters advertising either the hotel or some firm that has furnished them free to the proprietor for the sake of the publicity thus gained.

Y. M. C. A. MASS MEETING SUNDAY

Big Rally Planned in Connection With War Camp Fund—Captains and Workers.

The mass meeting planned to be held in Municipal hall Sunday afternoon in connection with the Y. M. C. A. War Camp fund promises to be one of much interest.

Notwithstanding the fact that the $25,000,000 set out to be raised by the general officers of the organization has been accomplished there are many people in this city and county who do not wish the thought to go abroad that Otsego county is in any manner not in harmony with the thoughts and actions of other counties and states.

It is no fault of the local Y. M. C. A. that the campaign was not started simultaneously with the work in other cities. There was a hitch in the state organization in arranging for the campaign in this section, hence the delay.

Throughout the county people are entering into the spirit of the work, and knowing full well that the Y. M. C. A. will expend judiciously every penny collected, no matter what the amount, the campaign promises to go forward in splendid shape, and Otsego will no doubt come forward with its share of money.

In addition to W. T. Perkins, field secretary of the organization, others will speak including Dr. J. M. Russell. The committee is in correspondence with a man who has seen active service in Europe and either he or some other well informed man will be on the platform Sunday afternoon.

A male quartet will sing patriotic songs and indications point to a thorough patriotic meeting.

The following have been selected as captains and workers in connection with the campaign.

First Ward.—Lynn Breese, captain. Willard Wells, E. Moore, R. Henderson, Clarence E. Holmes, W. H. Hoffman.

Second Ward.—George L. Winans, captain. R. E. Brigham, Robert Hall, Charles E. Westervelt, Clark McCrum, I. J. Bookhout, J. J. Petrie.

Third Ward.—Clifford Morris, captain. A. E. Coperley, Dr. George Dann, O. C. Becker, Arthur Seybold, Leslie Gardner, E. E. Scatchard.

Fourth Ward.—Fred VanWise, captain. F. A. Herrieff, O. B. Rowe, J. G. Hoyt, Edward Crippen, Floyd F. Taylor, H. W. Fluhrer.

Fifth Ward.—Leo H. VanWoert, captain. B. C. Lauren, Harry Bard, E. L. Sellers, W. A. Holley, C. A. Miller, A. M. Curtis.

Sixth Ward.—W. S. Polley, captain. W. F. Eggleston, Ralph Murdock, C. J. Ernest, Lavern Palmer, Ellery Spencer, F. A. Arnos, Roscoe Briggs.

Chamber of Commerce Resolutions.

In this connection the following resolution was presented at the last meeting of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce and unanimously adopted:

Mindful of the splendid service being given our soldier boys, both in this country and on the battle fields of Europe, and appreciating to the full measure the importance of the Y. M. C. A. work in every war activity, and realizing also our personal responsibility toward supporting this laudable agency to the utmost of our ability; be it

Resolved, That the Board of Directors of the Oneonta Chamber of Commerce most heartily approve and endorse the plans as outlined by the general officers of the Y. M. C. A., and that we urge every citizen to cooperate with the local Y. M. C. A. in raising the quota of $4,000 apportioned to the city of Oneonta to the end that this city and the county of Otsego may share with the other American communities, the privilege of having a part in this great work.

RHEUMATISM IS A WEATHER PROPHET

More Prevalent Than for Many Years—Sudden Changes of Temperature.

When rheumatism is based on an individual, he generally knows what the trouble is. The inflammation, soreness, pain, swelling, joint locking, with aching of the limbs, and a feeling of heat, are all signs of the disease. Physicians disagree as to the cause, but all agree that rheumatism is caused by poison getting into the system. Cold and moisture, with sudden changes of temperature, cause rheumatism. It attacks even the best of us. It is a disease of the blood. These demand quick action.

It is needless to suffer, get from your druggist a bottle of Rheumalene. It will give you two weeks' treatment at a cost of only five cents a day, and two days' use will prove you can be quickly relieved of your trouble. Rheumalene is a specialist's prescription which gives relief in all forms of rheumatism. It breaks swollen joints down to normal, reduces the pain, and restores the whole system without the least injury to the body.

Rheumalene is sold with a guarantee by H. B. Gildersleeve.

One of Many Odd Ways of Making a Living

MISS ROSE MURRAY.

There are many odd ways of making a living in a great city. Here is a photograph of a young woman who is engaged in one of the oddest. She is Miss Rose Murray, who is "book doctor" for the New York Public Library. She mends all of the old books. Some of them are so old and the dust so thick that she has to use the "gas mask" outfit in which she was photographed.

BENEFIT CARD PARTIES.

Enjoyable Event at Fairchild Residence Last Evening.

Despite the downpour, nearly 100 were in attendance at the card party given last evening by Mrs. George W. Fairchild at the family residence as a benefit to the Red Cross in aid of the war relief work the local organization is carrying on successfully. The party was throughout very enjoyable and several rubbers of bridge were played, tables being reserved for all who secured tickets and amid the most congenial of surroundings the playing was a delight indeed. Later in the evening light refreshments were served.

This afternoon a second similar event will be given by Mrs. Fairchild for the same purpose and with a goodly number of tables already reserved it is expected and hoped that the attendance will be even larger than last evening. The proceeds will give much needed and valuable aid to the work.

Promoted to Be Corporals.

Private Frank C. VanHousen of Oneonta and Bugler Elmer J. Ellisworth of Cooperstown, formerly of Company G, First New York infantry, have been promoted to corporals in Company G, One Hundred Seventh Infantry, at Spartanburg. The success of the two men will be learned with satisfaction by many friends in the county.

Intelligence also from the men of Company G, who came from this section, is to the effect that the health of the men is excellent, despite rumors to the contrary, which are understood to be current here. The rate of sickness, in fact, is so low as not to be included in the army reports. There are no epidemics or contagious diseases as are reported from other camps, and the men are enjoying full liberties of the camp and surrounding country.

Branch Sends in Finished Work.

West Oneonta branch of the Oneonta Red Cross chapter sent in a package yesterday containing 140 compresses, 60 gauze strips, and ten gauze wipes. The general fund of the Red Cross was increased by $13 by donations from Burt Morris of $10; Mrs. Edith Lockwood, $1; and Robert Bigelow, $2.

A card party will be held in the home of Mrs. George W. Fairchild this afternoon. An admission of 35 cents will be charged each player, and the proceeds are to go to the Red Cross.

SUPERVISORS HONOR SOLDIERS

Bills Must be Presented Before December 7—Divide Motor Monies Between Towns—Prisoners to do Hard Labor.

Cooperstown, Nov. 22.—(Special).—The board of supervisors this morning voted to adjourn at 3 o'clock and visit the D. & H. station to honor four departing soldiers from the second district of Otsego.

The reports of the standing committee on grand jurors, Messrs. Beardslee, Parish and French, were read and adopted.

At the afternoon session upon motion of Mr. Ferguson, it was voted to make the annual visit to the county farm Tuesday morning, December 4. All bills and claims against the county must be presented for audit to the board on or before December 7. After that date no bill will be received except by special vote showing a majority of the members of the board.

Upon motion of Mr. Cole it was voted that the motor monies received in Otsego county be divided pro rata among the towns according to the number of miles and highway in each. A resolution offered by W. I. Smith and unanimously adopted provided that the sheriff be empowered to employ prisoners at hard manual labor outside the jail where their physical condition permitted and that it be the sense of the board that as far as possible the prisoners be employed for labor at the county farm and on road construction.

The Freeman's Journal of Cooperstown was designated by the Democratic members of the board to publish the election notices and official canvass for the current year.

WOMEN'S PART IN WAR

Shall we say that women contribute only the landings, the socks and the "lefts"? No, they contribute the fighters! What sort of soldiers will the women of the present day contribute to the nation and mothers of brave boys if they are not forbidden and broken down by the diseases and the weakness of the sex?

An affection confined to women must have its cause in the womanly nature. There is no doubt that a diseased condition of the delicate womanly organs is in general responsible for feminine nervousness and an undermined constitution. The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes women happy by making them healthy. There are no more crying spells. "Favorite Prescription" is for inflammation and female weakness. It makes weak women strong.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is and has been for nearly 50 years just the medicine. It is not a secret prescription, its ingredients are printed on the wrapper and a temperance medicine, a glyceric extract from roots.
